GENERAL PREFACE

Matter of Inducement

If histories and tables of genealogy of the Bower and Swickard families, prepared a hundred years ago, were now at hand, it is very probable that certain facts of descent and kinship, now lost, would be known. To prevent other and similar losses of facts, and to preserve these facts for the use and benefit of present and future generations, this Directory and these tables of genealogy have been compiled.

This Directory was compiled from the point of view of those sub-branches of those families which originated in John Bower and Christina Swickard, his wife, who in their last forty years lived and died at their home on a farm in Rose Township, Carroll County, Ohio.

Margaret Easterday, also, a daughter of Barbara Bower and Martin Easterday, her husband, married Daniel Swickard (II. M.), a brother of Christina Swickard.

By reason of those two marriages, the members of the Bower and Swickard families are thus divided into

THREE CLASSES OR GROUPS OF KIN

The Two Families	The Bower Family	Class 2 Descendants of:
The Swickard Family	Class 1 Descendants of: John Bower and Christina Swickard, his wife. Margaret Easterday and Daniel Swickard (I. M.) her husband.	John Swickard (I. M.) Sarah S. Class 3 Descendants of:	Christian Easterday Susan E. Rinehart Barbara E. Rinehart Elizabeth E. Ridenour Eve E. Stemple David Bower (1.)	Explanations  1st—All persons belonging in Class 1, being in a field common to both families, are of kin to ALL members of both families.

2nd--Of persons belonging in Classes 2 or 3, all persons in either class are of kin to all others in the same class, but are not of kin to persons in the other class.

Errors and Omissions

In the collection and tabulation of the facts of history, lines of descent, degrees of kinship and places of residence or post office addresses, the compiler had the assistance of many of our kin, and a great effort was made to avoid making errors and omissions; but some of these, doubtless, may be found; if so, correct the errors and supply the omissions, and report the same to the compiler for insertion in a "Table of Errors and Omissions," which may be printed and distributed at a later date.

Moreover, since births, deaths, marriages and changes of places of residence or post office addresses may occur at any time, tables of genealogy become, in these respects as time passes, less and less trustworthy. These, too, should be noted and reported for addition or correction.

The names of persons who died in infancy or in childhood, or who as adults died leaving no child or other descendant now living, have been, in most cases, purposely omitted.

The importance of having an adequate or reasonable knowledge of our history, descent and kinship is the only basis of our claim to the attention of our kin.

Respectfully submitted,

AMBROSE M. BOWER.

Lebanon, Ohio, July, 1935.

BOWER FAMILY HISTORY

The earliest ancestor of the Bower family of whom we have information and from whom it appears we have descended, was Christian Bower (I.). The date and place of his birth are now unknown; but he died a resident of Frederick County, Maryland. His last will and testament, probated and admitted to record in that county in 1790, mentions the names of three (3) of his children: Barbara Bower, Caty Bower, and Christian Bower (II.).

As late as 1932, there was still standing in Frederick County, Maryland, an old farm house which had been owned by Christian Bower and on which, in the gable, was written in German this inscription:

C. B. — U. B.

“Gottes segen lencht in diesen haus
Und wer, deo, get in und aus.”

That inscription, translated into English, is: “The spirit of God rests upon this house and those who go in and out.”

Branches The Bower family is large, and, like many others, consists of several branches and many sub-branches. Those branches of the family which are of kin to the compiler hereof, as proven by facts or as alleged by tradition, consists of four (4) great branches, as follows:

1. The Barbara Bower branch.
2. The Christian (?) Bower (II.) branch, which includes:
  - a. The David Bower sub-branch.
  - b. The John Bower sub-branch.
3. The Barnhart Bower branch.
4. The Samuel Bower branch.

Two other branches, known to the writer but not as yet known to be of kin to any of the foregoing or to each other, are numbered and represented as follows:

6. Ambrose A. Bowers, 345 Fair Ave., N. W., New Philadelphia, Ohio.
7. Hon. John P. Bower, Member of the Ohio Senate, Rushsylvania, Ohio.

The common origin and the degrees of kinship of the first and second branches are known, Barbara Bower having been an aunt of David and John Bower: and though, at this time, we are not positively certain, yet the evidence seems to show that the name of the common ancestor of the first two branches of the family was Christian Bower, and that the name of Barbara's brother, the father of David and John Bower, was Christian Bower (II.).

Tradition Tradition, long and widely prevalent and so well authenticated as to have become, at least a hundred years ago, an universally admitted fact, ascribes a kinship between first three (3) branches. Another tradition, perhaps not so widely prevalent but now believed to have originated in fact, ascribes a kinship between the first three (3) branches and the 4th branch. But as neither the common origin nor the degree of kinship of the 3rd and 4th branches is known, the tables of genealogy of these branches are omitted. They may be published hereafter as one or more supplements.

Origin, Language and Change of Name

The Bower family is of German origin. All the members of the older generations who had immigrated to, or were born in the United States spoke and wrote the German language. The name, however, was originally Bauer, written with German letters.

After the name Bauer had been Anglicized to Bower, and was thus used by the younger members of the family, some of the older members continued to use the old German form, Bauer. Still later, an "s" was added to Bower thus spelling it as Bowers. Henry Bowers, formerly an eminent attorney-at-law, and a great criminal lawyer who resided in New Philadelphia, Ohio, who was a great-grandson of Samuel Bower (1778-1873) but who died April 21, 1934, in a letter addressed to the compiler of this sketch and dated September 4, 1931, wrote as follows: "I have heard my father tell how their name was changed from Bower to Bowers, just adding an "s", which was done only by my father and his cousins. My grandfather, Jacob Bower, retained that name as long as he lived."

The Barbara Bower Branch In the year 1750 Christian Easterday, whose family name in German was Ostertag, settled in Frederick County, Maryland. In 1765 his younger brother, Martin Easterday, who had immigrated to America on the ship, Betsy, from Rotterdam, also established his home in the same county, and there his son, Martin Easterday, (II. 1756-1840) married in 1783 Barbara Bower; and thereafter for 13 years, she and her husband resided in that county. But in the year 1796, Martin Easterday and his family and some other members of the Bower family moved to Red Stone, Pennsylvania, a place on the Monongahela River, now called Brownsville, in Fayette county, at which place some other members of the Bower family were then residing. There they lived until April in the year 1800, when, having decided to find homes elsewhere, the same members of the Bower and Easterday families who together had gone to Red Stone, placed themselves and their goods and chattels on a boat and floated down the Monongahela and Ohio rivers; finally they went ashore in Jefferson county, Ohio, and established their habitations there in the wilderness near the site of Knoxville. Some years later a Lutheran Church was there organized and Martin Easterday became one of its charter members.

In 1805 Martin Swickard and the unmarried members of his family removed from their former home in Washington county, Pennsylvania, and they also established their home in the same vicinity and thus became pioneer neighbors and friends of the descendants of Barbara Bower and Martin Easterday, her husband. Soon after, Margaret Easterday, their daughter, married Daniel Swickard, (I. M.) and John Bower, their nephew, married Christina Swickard, Daniel's sister.

Martin Easterday died in 1840 and was buried in Osage Cemetery, about 3 miles east of Richmond; but the date and place of death of Barbara Bower Easterday are now unknown.

After Barbara Bower Easterday died, her widower, Martin Easterday, married her brother's widow; and though the given name of this brother and that of his widow are now lost and unknown, yet those names are now believed to have been Christian and Salome.

That widow, when Martin Easterday married her, was the mother of six (6) children: Three (3) of those children were John Bower (1789-1868), David Bower (I.) and the third, whose given name is now lost and unknown, is reported to have married a brother of Daniel Swickard. Of the other 3 children nothing is now known.

The David and John Bower Sub-Branches John Bower (I.), one of those six (6) children, as stated, married Christina Swickard, a daughter of Martin Swickard, then a resident of Jefferson County, Ohio, and settled in Rose Township, Carroll County, Ohio, where they lived, reared a large family and died. They were buried in the Lutheran Cemetery in that township. A few of their descendants still reside there.

David Bower (I.), a brother of John Bower (I.), married a Miss — Harmon, also a resident of Jefferson County, Ohio, settled on a farm on a part of which the village of Bowerston, Harrison County, Ohio, now stands.

David Bower, the elder son of Christian (?) Bower (II.) and another David Bower, a son of Barnhart Bower, for some years lived as neighbors near where the village of Bowerston, Ohio, now stands; and to avoid confusion or uncertainty, the former was called "Hill" David Bower, because he lived on a hill; and the latter was designated as Squire David Bower, because he had been a Justice of the Peace.

Barnhart Bower came from Washington County, Maryland, and settled in the northern part of Harrison County, Ohio, where in 1852, his sons, David Bower and Henry Bower, and their nephew, Nathaniel Bower, founded or laid out the village of Bowersville, since renamed and now called Bowerston, in Harrison County, Ohio, in and near which many of their descendants and other kin still reside. A large portion of the land on which Bowerston now stands was once the property of "Hill" David Bower. Moreover, he donated the land for the cemetery and assisted in building a Lutheran Church at Bowerston, Ohio. Thereafter, he moved to Indiana where he bought a farm near New Haven, Allen County, and there he lived and died and was buried.

John Bower, a brother of David Bower; after his marriage to Christina Swickard, went to Rose Township, Carroll County, Ohio, and there in 1826 purchased from the government of the United States two adjoining tracts of land of 80 acres each, the patents therefor having been signed by President John Quincy Adams. And on that land he and his wife thereafter resided until they died, he, in 1868 and she, in 1871. They were members of Emmanuel's Evangelical Lutheran Church in that township and were buried in the cemetery adjoining. In his Last Will, dated March 6, 1861, witnessed by John Mansfield and Bazel Brown, and probated in Carrollton, Ohio, Probate Record F, Page 110, he signed his name as Johannes Bauer, written in German letters.

The writer of this sketch, as a boy from 7 to 10 years, knew his grandfather, John Bower. He spoke some English, but it was such bad, broken or imperfect English that he now remembers him as a man whose language was most difficult to understand. His family Bible, too, was a German Bible, dated 1815, and was of the version or translation of Dr. Martin Luther. In that Bible he recorded in German handwriting the names and dates of birth of his children. After he died that Bible passed in succession first to his son, John, and last to the compiler who still carefully preserves it. And in 1861, when he transferred the title to his farm to his son, Mathias Bower, he signed the deed of conveyance in German handwriting as Johannes Bauer.

David Bower, brother of John Bower (II.) had also the following descendants, in addition to those mentioned and referred to on page 63:

Joseph Bower and his son Charles lived at Ft. Wayne, Ind.;

Louisa Bower;

Susan B. Everett;

Corella Bower and

Adelene B. Shorden and her children, Howard and Lillian.

Of these persons nothing more is known.

John Bower and Christina Swickard, his wife, also had the following children and grandchildren in addition to those mentioned and referred to on page 63:

George Bower, born February 9, 1813.

Daniel Bower, born December 3, 1815.

David Bower, born January 17, 1817.

Christina Bower, born June 17, 1824.

Eva Ann Bower, born July 31, 1827.

Of these persons nothing more is known. They probably died in infancy or in childhood.

Salome Bower, born March 15, 1819, visited her parents at their home where the compiler remembers having seen her about 1865-6 or 7, after which she went to her own home, which, if the compiler's memory is correct, was then in Holmes, Richland or Wayne County, Ohio. Leonard Bower was her son.

Catherine Bower, born March 22, 1821, resided many years in Waynesburgh, Stark County, Ohio. Later she was reported to have moved to Summit County, Ohio, and died there.

John Bower (III), another grandchild of John Bower, is mentioned in his will; he went in the 60's to California; of him nothing more is known.

Acknowledgments                      This work, like others of a similar kind and degree of completeness, could not and would not have been possible without assistance and cooperation of many other people. ANOTHER BOOK IN PREPARATION

Mrs. Lillian S. Meyer, 201 Irving Avenue, Dayton, Ohio, and her niece, Mrs. O. T. Lippincott, 524 N. Jameson Avenue, Lima, Ohio, working jointly, are preparing a book on the Easterday, Rinehart and Stemple sub-branches of the Bower family, which book will probably be published within two or three years. Persons who may desire to obtain copies of their book may address them.

It is, really, a matter of much regret that the facts in this book which pertain to the Bower family could not have been combined with those in their book and be published as one book instead of two books. It would be well if this be done later.

It is a pleasure to announce that the American Medical Association has received from the National Board of Health a copy of the report of the committee on the subject of the medical education of women. The report is a most interesting and valuable contribution to the subject, and it is hoped that it will be of great service to the medical profession and to the public. The committee has done a most thorough and exhaustive study of the subject, and their conclusions are well founded and sound. † Foot Note: The compiler met Harry Householder at a family reunion at Viola in Richland Co., Wisconsin, on Thursday, August 10, 1933, and then and there inquired of him whether he was of kin to the Householder family mentioned on p. 46. Subsequent inquiry disclosed the facts as follows: Harry Householder is a son of Charles Householder, and a grandson of Peter Householder. The latter was a first cousin of Jacob Householder, the husband of Angeline Swickard. (See p. 46).

SWICKARD FAMILY HISTORY

Origin and Branches

The Swickard family in the United States consists of two great branches and many sub-branches, the common ancestor of which was Daniel Swickard (1724?-1804?). He came from Germany, having come down the Rhine; having sailed from Rotterdam, he landed in Philadelphia, Penn., Sept. 19, 1765. He had two sons, Martin Swickard (1746-1841) and Daniel Swickard (IID.) (1764-1849), and later established his and their home in Somerset Township, Washington County, Penn., where he became the owner of a farm, which, still later he transferred by deed to his two sons. In that deed the name was spelled Swickart; originally the name spelled Zwigart; later and now the name is Swickard.

Martin Swickard's Military Services

Martin Swickard was a soldier in the War of the American Revolution, and is credited in the Penn. archives as having been paid for services in that war. There in Series 6 Vol. 2, page 396, it is stated that he was registered as from Westmoreland Co., Penn, in Captain Mum's company as Martin Swigart, which is another form of the name now spelled Swickard.

After the War of the American Revolution had come to an end, Martin Swickard in 1782 served as a soldier in Col. Wm. Crawford's command in an ill-fated expedition against the Indians and fought in the Battle of Sandusky and in the subsequent disastrous rout and retreat of Col. Crawford's command.

That battle was fought in and near a grove since and still well known as Battle Island on the 4th and 5th days of June, 1872, in what is now Crane Township, Wyandot County, Ohio.

From page 153 of Vol. VI of the Ohio Arch. & Historical Publication, written by W. H. Hunter, we quote: "Of those taking a prominent part in the Crawford Expedition, Michael Myers, John Sherrard and Martin Swickard afterwards settled in Jefferson County, Ohio, all having respected descendants who today hold prominent positions in social and business affairs. Swickard and Myers were together for a time during the retreat, and the hardships suffered by them, if recorded, would make a very interesting volume." At the loan exhibition connected with the centennial celebration in Jefferson County, Ohio, James Addison Swickard, a grandson of Martin, had on exhibition a powder horn carried by his grandfather. On this powder horn there was an etching, a crude representation of British arms.

Martin Swickard's Family

Martin Swickard was married twice and had 13 children. The names of his two wives and of his children whose descendants are tabulated are shown on page 64. But he had four other children by his first wife, as follows:

Eva Swickard (born Feb. 16, 1791). Married Jacob Painter.

Lovisa Swickard (born Jan. 1, 1785). Married Jacob Groves. 9-2-1813

Martin Swickard (II). (1788-1843). Is said to have married a sister of John and David Bower. He died and is buried one-half mile east of Osage Cemetery in Jefferson County, Ohio.

Salome Swickard (born Aug. 1, 1798). From a record in an old German Bible, formerly owned by John Bower and his wife, Christina Swickard, and now in possession of the compiler.

Of those four children nothing more is known.

Martin Swickard's
Removal to Jefferson
Co., Ohio, Religious Zeal, Vocation, Last Illness and Death

John Swickard, Martin's eldest child, having married and having established his home in Washington County, Penn., where he always lived and where in 1877 he died. Martin Swickard, in 1805, with his unmarried children moved to Jefferson County, Ohio, where in 1814, he and his wife helped to organize the Mt. Tabor M. E. Church about 2 miles southeast of Richmond. For some years the members of this congregation worshiped at the home of Adam Jackman before they were financially able to erect a church building. Of this church, Martin Swickard was a class leader, and his sons, Samuel and Jacob were trustees.

In the little cemetery just across the road from this church the following lie buried:

Margaret Swickard died July 26, 1840, aged 70 years.

Martin Swickard died May 22, 1841, aged 95 years.

Mary Swickard died March 8, 1884, aged 66 years, 4 months, 21 days.

Jacob Swickard died Sept. 20, 1887, aged 77 years, 2 months, 28 days.

Mary Swickard died Nov. 9, 1892, aged 84 years.

Samuel Swickard died March 29, 1894, aged 86 years.

In the spring of 1841, Martin Swickard (I), in planting corn, walked with unshod or bare feet upon the cold, damp ground; and, as a result of that imprudent act, he became afflicted with pneumonia and died at the age of 95 years. He was interred and his remains still lie in a grave in the cemetery at Mt. Tabor M. E. Church.

Martin Swickard's
First Grand-Child
Elizabeth Swickard,
& Her Descendants

Elizabeth Swickard, the eldest child of John Swickard, while living at her father's home in Washington County, Penn., married George Tinkey; and thereafter she and her husband continued to reside in that county until the year 1849 when they moved with six of their younger and unmarried children, John, Jeremiah, James, Lovina, Ann and Susan to Ohio and settled upon a 160 acre farm in Richland County, two miles south of Bellville. In this move, they left their two daughters, Elizabeth and Mary, who had married in Penn., with their husbands, James Thomas and John Gamble, respectively.

Lovina married John Gurney and moved to Huron County, Ohio.

Susan married Jacob Fisher, and moved to Holmes County, Ohio.

Ann married Abner Oldfield and remained on the farm.

John married first, Laura Culver and second, Caroline Davy and lived near Alta, Ohio.

Jeremiah married Druzille Snyder and lived near Bellville, Ohio.

James married Margaret Martin and lived near both the old homes.

From the Tinkey Family Book

The Tinkey family, most of whom are descendents of Elizabeth Swickard Tinkey and George Tinkey, her husband, began in 1921 holding annual family reunions. In 1922 that family published a book, "The Tinkey Family." From that book, the compiler has obtained many facts. Also, by a loan of a number of plates or cuts by Geo. W., James C. and Nathan E. Tinkey, the compiler is thus enabled to reproduce in this book a lot of portraits and groups of people also published in their book.

The Daniel Swickard (II) Branch Daniel Swickard (II) (1764-1849) the brother of Martin Swickard, was married and was the father of 12 children. He came from his former home in Washington County, Penn., and settled in Jefferson Township, Franklin County, Ohio, about the year 1822. He died in 1849 and was buried on a hill on his farm, but was later removed and buried in Maple Wood Cemetery at New Albany, in that county, where his tombstone shows this inscription: Daniel Swickard died March 18, 1849 in the 85th year of his age.

John Swickard (I. D.), one of the sons of Daniel Swickard (II), was born in Washington County, Penn., Aug. 25, 1806, and with his parents came to Ohio about 1822. He became the owner of more than 600 acres and for a half century was an active member of the United Brethren Church. He married Elizabeth Baughman (Born Sept. 6, 1804, Died Jan 2, 1882); they became the parents of seven children: Mary, Eliza, Frederick, Levi, Noah, Peter and John Wesley, all of whom married and reared families. A table of Noah Swickard's descendants is given on a later page.

Jacob Swickard, another son of Daniel Swickard (II), had 15 children; but because the compiler does not have at hand the facts and does not have sufficient time in which to secure these facts before going to press, tables of the descendants of the other sub-branches of the Daniel Swickard line are omitted.

Acknowledgements The thanks of the compiler and the gratitude of all our kin are due for much and valuable assistance rendered in the collection and report of facts to the following named persons:

CHAPTER I
THE DISCOVERY OF AMERICA
The first discovery of America was made by Christopher Columbus in 1492. He sailed from Spain in search of a westward route to the Indies. On October 12, 1492, he landed on the island of San Salvador in the West Indies. This event marked the beginning of European exploration and colonization of the Americas.

CHAPTER II
THE EARLY YEARS OF THE COLONIES

CHAPTER III
THE STRUGGLE FOR INDEPENDENCE
The colonies fought for independence from Britain. The American Revolution began in 1775 and ended in 1783. The Declaration of Independence was signed on July 4, 1776. The United States became a sovereign nation.

CHAPTER IV
THE GROWTH OF THE NATION

CHAPTER V
THE CIVIL WAR
The Civil War was fought between 1861 and 1865. It was a conflict between the Union and the Confederacy over the issue of slavery. The Union emerged victorious, and slavery was abolished.

CHAPTER VI
THE RECONSTRUCTION ERA
The Reconstruction Era followed the Civil War. It was a period of rebuilding the South and integrating African Americans into society. The Reconstruction Act of 1867 established military districts in the South.

CHAPTER VII
THE Gilded Age
The Gilded Age was a period of rapid industrialization and economic growth. It was characterized by the rise of big business and the accumulation of vast wealth by a few individuals.

CHAPTER VIII
THE PROGRESSIVE ERA
The Progressive Era was a period of social and political reform. It was characterized by the rise of the Progressive Movement, which sought to address the problems of the Gilded Age.

CHAPTER IX
THE WORLD WAR ERA
The World War Era was a period of global conflict. The United States entered World War I in 1917 and World War II in 1941. The war resulted in the defeat of the Axis powers and the establishment of the United Nations.
